DE GAULLE FLEURANCE & ASSOCIÉS: STRATEGIC AND COOPERATION-ORIENTED

Louis de Gaulle

Team led by:
Louis de Gaulle
Established: 2001

Track record: De Gaulle Fleurance & Associés continues to support the TF1 group in the implementation of its new business model. The firm is also acting in a post-transfer litigation concerning an earn out in the photovoltaic sector and is advising a large group in a dispute involving commercial issues and unfair competition in the context of a follow-on action.

Team & differentiation: Deploying an entrepreneurial strategy, the firm is proud of the fact that it does not have any departments, allowing lawyers to work hand in hand and efficiently. Cooperation, strategy and cross-functionality are the strengths used by the teams in all types of commercial litigation.

HAUSFELD: ANTITRUST PRIVATÉ ENFORCEMENT PIONEER

Laurent Geelhand

Team led by:
Laurent Geelhand
Established: 2014

Track record: At the forefront in the field of EU competition infringement recoveries, the firm has acted in some of the most high-profile and complex competition claims including Air Cargo, Interchange Fees and the trucks cartel. In the last five years Hausfeld's lawyers have successfully recovered compensation for a large number of businesses – including many in the transport industry.

Team & differentiation: Managing partner at the Brussels office Laurent Geelhand heads up the Parisian practice with a team of seven other lawyers, including Geneviève Labbe and Amandine Guéret. The team split their time between the firm's London, Brussels and Paris offices.
